MAJESTIC BEAUTY

The alluring grandeur of the ballroom at Boston Park Plaza was an ideal backdrop for this classic wedding.

PHOTOGRAPHED BY GRAZIER PHOTOGRAPHY

Joanna envisioned a modern twist on the classic all-white wedding. Partnering with Nicole Simeral, of Nicole Simeral & Company, she was able to make this vision a reality. Joanna's gown inspired nearly all of the design elements. The fitted bodice featured a traditional lace pattern that flowed into a modern organza skirt embroidered with a floral motif. That floral motif was carried throughout the wedding design—from the paper goods to the lighting. The pattern was projected onto the white dance floor while guests dined and as soon as it was time to dance, the pattern scaled the walls and ceiling, enchanting every guest in the ballroom. Immense silver urns filled with an abundance of fresh white flowers and deep greenery added a glamorous touch, completing the overall look. "The gray and metallic color scheme of the newly renovated ballroom was an incredible match with my style!" Joanna raved.
